Products

CoDesCo IT Consulting is over 20 years known as an international competent contact in the development, system integration, consulting and distribution of publishing software solutions. This experience and the portfolio, which is based on this experience, is the key factor of our success.

Whether you need an entire new publishing system, or modification modules for your running system/ software, or a single XTension™/ PlugIn, we surely have the suitable product in our portfolio.

See for yourself and have a look at our well assorted product database by typing the product name or a keyword in the listed field below:

Search form

Search for:

Search

Extended search

Product list (in alphabetical order)