

Customized Solutions

CoDesCo IT Consulting is over 20 years known as an international competent contact in consulting, development and system integration of publishing software solutions. Based on this experience, we develop software solutions in an intensive dialogue at our customer's option.

These solutions can be complete new systems or just extended modules which we integrate over interfaces in running systems.

This page is under construction at the time. new content will be added soon. Thanks for your understanding!