COPAN

Modular Advertisement System

The COPAN Advertising System is a powerful system for practical experience for publishing companies of all sizes.

COPAN encompasses a complete commercial module, a technical system and integral functions built into the program.

COPAN provides smooth, effective production of publications and advertising in Publishing houses, and similar companies.

A development environment and access to our 24 hour services rounds off the product offering and allows clients to fine-tune the system to their specific needs.
