

XML Optionen

Encoding:

Select the type of coding for the XML files. It can differ depending from where you want to use the files.

DTD:

Type in the name of the DTD which has to be used while opening the XML files.

Text processing:

Return and soft return characters can be replaced.

Character replacement:

Special characters or characters typed in a special font (i.e. ZapfDingbats) can be replaced.

Picture

handling:

If you use the Xtensions ex Identifier or ex BoxTools pictures can be attached to an article. The export file will contain either the picture name or the complete path.